

Center for
Educator Compensation Reform
NEWSLETTER

Welcome to the first issue of the Center for Educator Compensation Reform (CECR) Newsletter! The CECR was awarded to Westat—in partnership with Learning Point Associates, Synergy Enterprises Inc., Vanderbilt University, and the University of Wisconsin—by the U.S. Department of Education in October 2006.

The primary purpose of the new center is to support the Teacher Incentive Fund (TIF) grantees with their implementation efforts through the provision of ongoing technical assistance and the development and dissemination of timely resources. The center also is charged with raising national awareness of alternative and effective strategies for educator compensation through this newsletter, a Web-based clearinghouse, and other outreach activities. We look forward to an exciting partnership with the TIF grantees as we embark together on blazing a new path for education reform.

This monthly newsletter will be disseminated through the TIF listserv and also will be available on the CECR website in the near future. Each newsletter will include a special section with information on upcoming events for TIF grantees; a federal update on the TIF program; and links to recent reports, studies, legislative action in the states, and news articles related to educator compensation systems at the state and district levels.

We welcome your suggestions for making this newsletter more valuable to you. We hope you will share this resource with your colleagues.

News for TIF Grantees

First Annual TIF Grantee Meeting

The first meeting is tentatively scheduled for late February or early March 2007. Stay tuned through the listserv for more information on dates, location, how to register, travel arrangements, and hotel reservations.

Conference Calls With TIF Grantees

Staff from the Center for Educator Compensation Reform hosted two conference calls with TIF grantees on December 13 and 14, 2006. These calls introduced CECR staff and provided TIF grantees with a general overview of the center's mission and purpose. If your site was unable to participate in one of the calls, please contact CECR@westat.com. Future calls will be scheduled on a regular basis to provide opportunities for grantees to share information about their projects and ask questions.

We'd Like to Hear From You

Did we miss a news article or press release about your program? Do you have some news that you would like to share with other TIF grantees about upcoming events, program successes, or lessons learned? Please send them to CECR@westat.com for inclusion in the next newsletter. Also, let us know what kinds of articles might be of interest to you. All feedback and suggestions are welcome.

Wanted: Proposal Reviewers

The U.S. Department of Education is looking for peer reviewers to read and score applications for the second round of TIF grants. Reviews will be conducted in March 2007 during a three- to four-day period in Washington, D.C. Individuals with a background in teacher quality, data management and analysis, evaluation, professional development, education policy, and differentiated pay are encouraged to submit their resumes to tif@ed.gov. Individuals applying for grants are not eligible to serve as reviewers. For further information, call U.S. Department of Education staff at 202-205-5224 or view the online information at <http://www.ed.gov/programs/teacherincentive/applicant.html#peer-review>.
